RE: Request for Memorial

Agenda: Vote on the request submitted by Joan (Carroll) DeLuca to Memorialize the Carroll family members who served in the US Military and as Police Officers for the Town of Arlington.

Support: John Carroll Sr. and his wife Mary were the parents of ten Children of which six served in the US Military, most during Wartime. John Sr. with seven children at home volunteered for the Second time to serve his Country during WWII. The Carroll Military Service spanned WWII and the Korean and Viet Nam Conflicts.

The Carroll family also served the Town of Arlington, with John Sr.
And James working for the D. P. W., John Jr. as Chief of Police,
William as Head of Detectives and Richard as Patrolman.
